

J. Jolly Hayden is Vice President on the Board of 7 Star Therapeutic Riding (“7 Star”). His day job is Chief Operating Officer for Golden Spread Electric Cooperative, Inc. The Kentucky native was introduced to 7 Star via his company’s Community Involvement Committee and fell in love with the mission of 7 Star and would love to help the organization grow so 7 Star can help more people. Jolly is a volunteer in weekly sessions and sees the progress firsthand of clients. He believes anyone who is involved in therapy using horses either as a volunteer, a patient or a loved one will be amazed at the progress and the outcomes.
